A.D. Laws Whiskey House is a grain-to-glass distillery in Denver, Colorado that applies a “there are no shortcuts” philosophy to each batch of whiskey produced. Each batch is milled, cooked, fermented, distilled, and aged on-site, utilizing heirloom grains from family-owned Colorado farms. The practice of open air, on-grain fermentation captures the essence of Colorado’s terroir while the copper pot-column still produces a robust, grain-forward style of whiskey that is aged in 53 gallon charred oak barrels for a minimum of three years.

Farmers Select is a single barrel bottling of the flagship Four Grain Straight Bourbon, selected exclusively by the farmers at Colorado Malting Company who grow and malt our grain. This selection represents the whiskey they believe best celebrates the hearty flavors of their heirloom grains and the land to which they dedicate their craft.

- ◆ Mash Bill: 60% corn, 20% heirloom wheat, 10% heirloom rye, 10% heirloom malted barley
- ◆ Aged over three years in new, 53 gal, charred oak barrels
- ◆ Tasting notes vary from barrel to barrel, though the farmers tend to select single barrels that showcase the sweet grassy notes of their white centennial wheat with a smooth, easy-drinking finish.
